

work for C. B. Woodward the coming season.—Leonard Hutchinson is at home from Boston.—There was an oyster supper at J. B. Hutchinson's Saturday evening.—Mr. and Mrs. Ira Harwood were given a surprise by about 40 of their friends Monday. Refreshments were served, and the aged couple were presented with two easy chairs and $10.00 in money.

NORTH TUNBRIDGE.
Mrs. Lee Moxley of Quebec is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. K. Moxley.—Eating sweet has left her last bill farm and moved to the El Stanley place in Chelms.—Mr. Durkin had a lucky escape from what might have proved a serious accident last Friday with a coat on his head.

VERMONT.
E. V. Scott has been engaged to make the butter at the Vermont Creamery for another year. The creamery is now producing about 450 pounds of excellent butter every other day.—Parties from New Hampshire are picking up potatoes here at 75 cents per bushel.—Parties from New York inspected the copper mine last week.—Alphonso Cross has moved into the house which he purchased of L. C. Aldrich.—Mrs. Bernice Church was united with Advent Church last Sunday.—Mr. Uriah Colburn has a brother from New Hampshire visiting him.—School meetings will be held for the purpose of electing officers to settle the business in the district. There are extensive plans on the new system.—Oscar Carlton will move his family from Lakeport, N. H.—Frank Pearl has moved to Hanover, N. H.

ORLEANS COUNTY.

The war drama, "The Pride of Co. G," will be played by the Newports rifle team 28 and 29. This play was written by D. W. Hilditch of Barton Landing under the name of David Hill.

The letters of Orleans county will meet at the American House in Barton on Thursday, March 23, for the purpose of fixing uniform rates of appraisals, and for consultation on matters pertaining to their duties.

The democratic patrons of the North Troy meeting met in caucus last Wednesday evening to select a candidate for postmaster. The Australian ballot was used and bore the names of E. T. Sawyer, H. B. Parkhurst, D. A. Barrows and Milo Lewis. Mr. Parkhurst led on the ballot and the other candidates withdrew and made his nomination unanimous.

Gen. B. W. Lee has sold the Arlington House, Newport, to W. C. Lindsay of West Derby and J. B. Grow of Lyndonville. Gen. Lee and his good wife, who had lived there about 33 years, went to Lowell, Mass., hoping that the change will benefit Mrs. Lee, who has been in failing health for the past two years. Gen. Lee was one of the oldest Masons in Vermont.

WESTFIELD.

Village school closed a prosperous term March 17 under Miss Clara Thompson of Lyndon and Irene Hill of Montpelier.

The Congregational Ladies Aid will meet with Mrs. William B. Gilpin Friday afternoon and evening.—Mrs. Napoleon Root has been spending two weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Fred Adair of Bolton, Can.

Miss Ruth Wright, sister of Col. at Barton this spring.—Michael Gilmore, of the farm on the hill, son of M. D. Gilman and wife had a daughter born March 8.

RUTLAND COUNTY.

Rutland boasts of about 700 dogs. There are at present 77 prisoners in the House of Correction at Rutland, 11 of whom are women.

H. W. Love, who is in Castleton, says that he has used the city of New York for $20,000 damages for false imprisonment.

The children of the late Spencer Smith of Clarendon have received $23,000 from the estate of their uncle, John P. Bowman.

The new entry docket in Rutland County Court contains 133 cases, of which 25 are for divorce. The chimney docket contains 90 cases.

Two marble cutters have gone from Rutland to Nelson, Cal., to work at their vocation. Quite an order has been placed at the same place is expected about April 1.

Thomas J. Hennessey has been section of the Catholic and Protestant churches of Rutland for 16 years. During that time he has superintended the burial of 1115 persons.

Amasa Payne, who died the other day in Pittsford, was born April 21, 1793. He was nearly 20 months old when George Washington died. A widow and several children survive him.

Upwards of 200 appeals in liquor cases were entered for trial at the term of the Rutland County Court within the past two days. This is the largest number of liquor cases ever entered at one term in the State.

John D. Harrahan, one of the dispossessed of patronage under the present administration, is persistently urging the appointment of Mr. Hugh C. Flynn of Rutland for deputy collector of internal revenue.

William H. Rowe of Pittsford, who died March 11, aged 70 years, had a brief illness, dying of pneumonia in one week after he was first taken ill. In 1861 he joined Co. G, 5th Vt. regiment, and remained at the front till the fall of 1864, when he was discharged. He was twice married, his first wife being Clara Adams, sister of E. T. Adams by whom he had five children. Three of whom survive him. His second wife was Amyra Bailey of Brandon, who survives.

RUTLAND.

Nearly 200 liquor cases have been entered in the County Court at this term, and in nearly every case the respondents are residents of this city who have been fined from time to time since the last term before Justice courts and have taken their cases on an appeal.

RUTLAND.

It cost the town of Rutland for the 13 months ending March 11, 1893, for the support of its poor and maintenance of its poor farm $11,359.40. The average number of inmates of the poor farm during the time was 66 and 11 were discharged. There were 15 inmates of poor people inmates of the poor farm and otherwise, which the town had to provide for and pay the expense of the same. It was also necessary to have seven in one persons taken to the asylum at Brattleboro at the expense of the town.

The amount of orders drawn on the town treasury by the selectmen on upwards of $50,000 are in existence and will have to be paid for by the city government.

BENSON.

W. F. Cummings is engaged to work for W. F. Lancelotti of Fair Haven.—Hazel Walker, aged 4 years, daughter of Mrs. Della Walker, died Wednesday evening at 10 o'clock of bronchial pneumonia. Funeral services were held Saturday at 2 o'clock at the house, Rev. E. Housh officiating.—A. J. Dickinson and W. S. Bacon were in at-

New Spring Cloaks

In order to make things lively for the next two weeks we shall make the following LOW PRICES, and to induce people to come in and see what we have and Buy Now.

Do not fail to come in and look our stock over. It will be for your interest.

CLOAK DEPARTMENT.

We are now showing our new Spring Cloaks for Ladies, Misses, and Children, most of them entirely different from last season and styles that you cannot find elsewhere. Do not fail to look at our stock before you buy.

If you can use a Winter Cloak at any price you can save big money by buying of us.

Ladies' ready made Wrappers in Print, Gingham and Percales at less than the cost of making.

Lace Curtains and Portieres at low prices.

A large assortment of Ladies' Gossamers and Mackintoshes, &c.

DRESS GOODS DEPARTMENT.

Is now well filled with all the staple weaves and colors, besides many new novelties that will be of interest to buyers. As regards prices you know that we are never undersold.

Black and Navy Storm Serges, 40 inch wide for 25 cts per yard.

10 pieces new colorings in serges and small checks for 25 cts per yard, worth 35 cts.

10 pieces new colorings, regular 50 cent quality, for this sale 35 cts per yard.

20 new colorings of fine Henriettes, New Serges, New Poplins, Cravens, New Plaids.

Great Bargains in plain and fancy Silks.

HOSIERY AND UNDERWEAR.

40 doz Ladies' Black Hose for 4 cts per pair.

25 doz Ladies' Black Hose for 8 cts per pair, worth 12 1/2 cts.

25 doz Ladies' Night Robes, just received at 50, 75, $1.00, $1.25 and upwards, they are great values for the prices asked.

25 doz Gents' Cotton Socks for 7 cts per pair, worth 12 1/2 cts.

25 doz Boys' extra heavy Bicycle Hose for 10 cts per pair, never sold for less than 25 cts.

10 doz Ladies' Colored Skirts for 25 cts each.

50 doz Ladies' Hose in Tans and Fast black in medium and heavy weight at 25 cts per pair, worth 35 cts.

Great Reduction in all Winter Underwear.

NOTION DEPARTMENT.

10 Dozen 5 Hook Corset Clasps in Drab or White for 7 cts. per pair.

Pearl's Soap for 10 cts. per cake.

Best American Pins for 5 cts. per paper.

10 Dozen New Windsor Ties at 25 cts. each.

10 Dozen Ladies' colored border Handkerchiefs that sold from 15 to 25 cts, now 10 cts each to close.

25 Dozen White Aprons in new styles at popular prices.

We have a large variety of New Dress Trimmings which we have marked at extremely low prices; many of them exclusive patterns.

A big variety of fancy veilings in all the new colors.

Sole agents for Standard Patterns.

LINEN DEPARTMENT.

50 doz Checked Fringe Doilies for 18 cents per doz.

Dinner Napkins for 49, 59, 69, 79, 99 and upwards.

Bed Spreads for 49, 59, 69 and upwards.

5 pieces Curtain Scrim for 4 cts per yard.

Half Bleach Table Damask for 25c, 29c, 39c, 49c and upwards.

1,000 yards cotton crash for 3 1/2 cts per yard.

25 pieces Curtain Muslin in all figures and White with colored figures, at 25 cts. per yd, a great bargain.

Big bargains in Towels at 5, 10, 12 1/2 and 25 cts.

10 doz fancy Turkish Towels for Tidiess.

1000 all Linen Crash Toweling for 5 cts. per yard.

Domestics Dep't.

3000 Yards Best Indigo Prints for 6 1/2 cts per yard.

2000 Yards Best Dress Style Gingham for 8 cts per yard, worth 12 1/2 cts.

One Bale Unbleached Cotton, a full yard wide for 5 1/4 cts per yard, worth 7 cts.

2000 Yards Apron Check Gingham for 4 cts per yard.

3000 yards New Cutting Cloths at 8 1/2 cts per yard, worth 12 1/2 cts.

1500 yds. Lace Stripe Gingham for 9 cts. per yd, worth 12 1/2 cts.

1 Case Bleached Cotton, a full yard wide, for 6 3/4 cts per yard, worth 8 cts.

Carpet Dep't.

Remember that we sell Carpets by sample in all the popular makes, such as Lowell's etc. We have Arnold, Constate & Co.'s confirmed patterns. Can give them to you in 36 hours, all made ready to lay, at less price than you can buy elsewhere.

GEORGE H. KINSLEY, "WARNER BLOCK," 96 CHURCH STREET.

tendance at the March term of County Court at Rutland last week as petit jurors.—Mrs. Hanson of Fort Edward is visiting relatives here.—Edward Ladd came Saturday morning from Albany to attend the funeral of Hazel Walker.—Fred Hale, telegraph operator at Saratoga, is home on a vacation.—Mrs. Fern Converse of Troy is here with her sister.—The official meeting of the Methodist board of officers was held Monday.—The drama, "Enlightened for the War," was given by talent from Dresden Friday night.—The new board of school commissioners met Saturday night.—The Ladd brothers have bought the "Hanson farm" of 312 acres, situated in Orwell, to take possession April 1.—There was a unanimous vote taken at the parish meeting of the Congregational church Friday evening to give Rev. M. Hitecock of Hudson, Ohio, a call to become their pastor for one year.

WASHINGTON COUNTY.

In the County Court Tuesday forenoon the plaintiff in the D. L. Fuller vs. Milo D. Parmeter case was awarded $1100, and the Nellie J. Kelle vs. H. A. Kugg case was given to the jury. At 2 p. m. the case of David B. Minard et. al. vs. Charles L. Currier for wrongfully damaging water supply at Barre was begun.

Three samples of new sugar had been received at the government sugar station up to Saturday, the first coming from Byron M. Elmwood of Fletcher. Deputy Collector Dr. J. T. Cushing, chemist in charge, has arrived, and work will soon begin in the laboratory testing samples.

The Washington Publishing company was on Saturday, sued for libel by Frank McGill, through Attorneys John G. Wing and John H. Senter, for publishing a statement that McGill was a proprietor of the saloon lately run by John E. Evans.

At the auction on Saturday the Union House was struck off to Henry C. Holmes for $3800.

St. Patrick's Day in Montpelier was, as usual, appropriately observed. On Friday evening the ladies of St. Augustine's parish served a bountiful supper in Capitol hall, the Military band gave a concert, and music and speeches were events of the entertainment.

Military goods were sold by auction on Saturday at the C. A. Best store.

In County Court Friday the jury in the malicious prosecution case of Nellie J. Kelle vs. H. A. Kugg reported disagreed and were discharged. All were in favor of the plaintiff, but could not agree on amount of damages.

In the case of David B. Minard et. al. vs. Charles L. Currier the judge ordered a verdict for defendant.

In executors of Nancy Cummings vs. heirs of Nancy Cummings, appellants, the suit was established.

The new entry dockets were received Friday and they contain 78 cases, 18 being divorces cases, prominent among the latter being that of Laura A. Caswell vs. James S. Caswell, the Gould murder now in State's prison. A similar petition from Mrs. Caswell at the last May term of Supreme Court was dismissed. This new petition is taken on different grounds.

On Monday forenoon committees from the Old Fellows' lodges in Barre, Northfield, Cabot and West Randolph met with the Vermont lodge committee, and decided that all six lodges in this district should join together in Montpelier on Wednesday, April 20, and celebrate the 734 anniversary of Old Fellowship in America. A grand parade is being arranged for the afternoon, under escort of the uniformed Patriarchs Militant, with members of Rebekah lodges in carriages, to be followed with a big public meeting in the evening. John H. Senter of Montpelier, E. F. Smith of Barre and H. H. Scribner of Montpelier were appointed a general committee, with J. E. Edgerton of Northfield, Dr. A. C. Bailey of West Randolph and William Miers of Barre a committee on securing speakers.

Bethany Christian Endeavorers are to hold a coloweb party on Friday evening. It is expected that a junior society will soon be organized.

Henry Riker, aged 42, late of Montpelier, died on Sunday at the Waterbury insane asylum. His body was brought here on Monday and placed in Green Mountain cemetery tomb. His mother, Mrs. Francis Riker, a sister, Mrs. George L. Nichols, and a brother survive.

BARRE.

Frank W. Jackson has been promoted to be orderly sergeant in Co. E, Spencer Rifle, and will move from corporal to sergeant.

James Adie of this village was married on Wednesday in Montreal, to Mary Galt.

Frank George of this village, and Savia M. Senter of Montreal, were married on Wednesday by Rev. W. S. Smithers.

Stevens & Reed are to erect a granite shed on the Smith meadow near the co-operative works. Charles & Gray now have a large shed nearly completed in the same locality.

St. Patrick's day was celebrated on Friday night with a musical, comic and literary entertainment and grand banquet at the opera house.

A lamp exploded in the Perley Chandler jewelry store between 5 and 6 o'clock on Sunday afternoon, and a party of young gentlemen broke through the floor and smothered the flames before any damage was done. A fire alarm called the fire companies, but no water was thrown.

April 6 is the date set for instituting the new camp of Sons of Veterans.

New officers will be elected on next Monday evening in Golden Rule division 8, of T. and on the following week they will occupy the Episcopal mission rooms for a new hall.

WATERBURY CENTRE.

School at the seminary began again Tuesday with a fair attendance.—Miss Elizabeth Colley is quite seriously ill. Pneumonia is feared.—The Ladies' Aid society met Wednesday at Mrs. J. S. Wheeler's.

WATERBURY.

Darius Gray went to Hyde Park to attend the funeral of his father, Elder Gray, aged 90 years. For many years he was widely known as a Free Will Baptist preacher.

The funeral of A. B. Douglass vs. August LeWare, set for Monday, was continued till March 31, before George W. Kennedy, justice of the peace.

EAST MONTPELIER.

Aunt Hannah Buckley has fractured her hip.—Solon Cummings has moved to Montpelier.—Mrs. D. F. Putnam of Montpelier has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Nye.—George F. Sibley's woolen factory is now running with nearly a full force of help.—Rev. Mr. Leonard of East Edgemoor, Me., has been preaching here.—Mrs. Jennie Paige of Hardwick has been visiting here.

SOUTH WOODBURY.

Mrs. S. D. Blake died March 15 of pneumonia, aged 53 years. The funeral was from the house Saturday, Rev. J. D. Bailey officiating.—Mrs. R. M. Pray is visiting in Montpelier.—Alonso Batchelder of South Dakota is visiting in town.—The mother of John Tabbett, died last week at her home in Bradford. She had lived nearly a century.

ROXBURY.

Mr. Wetmore has bought the Grace Ladd house in the village.—Dora Spaulding is failing, and his sister from Quebec, Mrs. Nelson Snow, together with her husband, is here.—Mrs. C. R. Leavens is visiting friends in town.—Dr. I. H. Risk is talking of going to Montpelier in company with Dr. Lauce.—Mr. W. H. Hingley has rented Mrs. Warner's tenement.

MORETOWN.

William Tripp is in very poor health.—Mrs. Ellen Smith is in Waterford with Rev. Mr. Douglass and family.

EAST ROXBURY.

Charles Bennett has bought the Hiram Henry place in the Savings bank for $30, and A. L. Rich is to occupy it.—Charles Holden is to carry on the town farm in Northfield the coming year.—Water Co. of Springfield, Mass., is sick with the measles.—Aaron, 15, is sick with the measles.—Bruce has moved his family to a farm in Bethel.—Fred Pope is to work for A. Farnham the coming season.—Ernest Blanchard and wife have returned to Barre.

WATSFIELD.

Quite a number have tapped their sugar places.—Geo. J. brother of Elmer Trask, returns to Massachusetts this week.—Fred Parker has about 3000 clabboard logs in his yard.

PLAINFIELD.

The Universalist ladies gave a supper party in the Grand Army hall on Tuesday last week.—A temperance lecture was given Sunday evening at the Methodist church by Rev. W. S. Smithers.

Stevens & Reed are to erect a granite shed on the Smith meadow near the co-operative works. Charles & Gray now have a large shed nearly completed in the same locality.

It is that adopted by people in precarious health who wisely fortify their systems against disease with that acceptable and effective barrier against its invasions—Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Preserves those who take it from malaria, dyspepsia, chronic constipation, rheumatism, kidney, and bladder troubles and liver complaint. Nervous invalids, persons troubled with indigestion and biliousness, and those who in delicate health and convalescence desire invigoration and strength.

The "Free Press" offers, by special arrangement with the Recreation Department of the Christian Union, illustrated printed matter describing the World's Fair and full information as to reaching Chicago from Burlington or from any place in the United States, including the time-tables and pamphlets of the railroad and steamer lines you would use. No charge is made. If you are going to the World's Fair, address the Recreation Department, The Christian Union, New York.

World's Fair.

The "Free Press" offers, by special arrangement with the Recreation Department of the Christian Union, illustrated printed matter describing the World's Fair and full information as to reaching Chicago from Burlington or from any place in the United States, including the time-tables and pamphlets of the railroad and steamer lines you would use. No charge is made. If you are going to the World's Fair, address the Recreation Department, The Christian Union, New York.

World's Fair.

The "Free Press" offers, by special arrangement with the Recreation Department of the Christian Union, illustrated printed matter describing the World's Fair and full information as to reaching Chicago from Burlington or from any place in the United States, including the time-tables and pamphlets of the railroad and steamer lines you would use. No charge is made. If you are going to the World's Fair, address the Recreation Department, The Christian Union, New York.

World's Fair.

The "Free Press" offers, by special arrangement with the Recreation Department of the Christian Union, illustrated printed matter describing the World's Fair and full information as to reaching Chicago from Burlington or from any place in the United States, including the time-tables and pamphlets of the railroad and steamer lines you would use. No charge is made. If you are going to the World's Fair, address the Recreation Department, The Christian Union, New York.

World's Fair.

The "Free Press" offers, by special arrangement with the Recreation Department of the Christian Union, illustrated printed matter describing the World's Fair and full information as to reaching Chicago from Burlington or from any place in the United States, including the time-tables and pamphlets of the railroad and steamer lines you would use. No charge is made. If you are going to the World's Fair, address the Recreation Department, The Christian Union, New York.

World's Fair.

The "Free Press" offers, by special arrangement with the Recreation Department of the Christian Union, illustrated printed matter describing the World's Fair and full information as to reaching Chicago from Burlington or from any place in the United States, including the time-tables and pamphlets of the railroad and steamer lines you would use. No charge is made. If you are going to the World's Fair, address the Recreation Department, The Christian Union, New York.

World's Fair.

The "Free Press" offers, by special arrangement with the Recreation Department of the Christian Union, illustrated printed matter describing the World's Fair and full information as to reaching Chicago from Burlington or from any place in the United States, including the time-tables and pamphlets of the railroad and steamer lines you would use. No charge is made. If you are going to the World's Fair, address the Recreation Department, The Christian Union, New York.

World's Fair.

The "Free Press" offers, by special arrangement with the Recreation Department of the Christian Union, illustrated printed matter describing the World's Fair and full information as to reaching Chicago from Burlington or from any place in the United States, including the time-tables and pamphlets of the railroad and steamer lines you would use. No charge is made. If you are going to the World's Fair, address the Recreation Department, The Christian Union, New York.

A SEIZURE OF SILKS.

Special Agent Ames Finds Sixty Yards of the Goods in a Woman's Trunk.

Special Agent Ames of Malone, N. Y., made a seizure of 60 yards of silk from a woman passenger from Albany, N. Y., at Rouses Point Thursday. She had been to Montreal and was on her way home. Deputy Collector Twomey inspected her baggage at Montreal and discovered a false bottom in a large trunk belonging to her, but the lady maintained that there were no dutiable goods in her possession as the veteran customs inspector said "I will let your trunk go on." He neglected to say how far, however. Mr. Twomey immediately notified Mr. Ames at Rouses Point, who searched the trunk with the above result. The goods were of very fine quality and are valued at $3.50 per yard.

ON FIRE WITH ECZEMA.

Terrible Suffering of Little Baby. Seven Doctors Failed. Cured by Cuticura.

My baby boy, 5 months old, broke out with eczema. The itching and burning was intense, and he was in terrible distress. I tried seven different doctors, but they all failed to cure him. I then tried Cuticura, and after using it for a few days, the itching and burning stopped, and the skin began to heal. I am now able to hold him in my arms, and he is as healthy as a horse.

My baby boy, 5 months old, broke out with eczema. The itching and burning was intense, and he was in terrible distress. I tried seven different doctors, but they all failed to cure him. I then tried Cuticura, and after using it for a few days, the itching and burning stopped, and the skin began to heal. I am now able to hold him in my arms, and he is as healthy as a horse.

My baby boy, 5 months old, broke out with eczema. The itching and burning was intense, and he was in terrible distress. I tried seven different doctors, but they all failed to cure him. I then tried Cuticura, and after using it for a few days, the itching and burning stopped, and the skin began to heal. I am now able to hold him in my arms, and he is as healthy as a horse.

My baby boy, 5 months old, broke out with eczema. The itching and burning was intense, and he was in terrible distress. I tried seven different doctors, but they all failed to cure him. I then tried Cuticura, and after using it for a few days, the itching and burning stopped, and the skin began to heal. I am now able to hold him in my arms, and he is as healthy as a horse.

My baby boy, 5 months old, broke out with eczema. The itching and burning was intense, and he was in terrible distress. I tried seven different doctors, but they all failed to cure him. I then tried Cuticura, and after using it for a few days, the itching and burning stopped, and the skin began to heal. I am now able to hold him in my arms, and he is as healthy as a horse.

My baby boy, 5 months old, broke out with eczema. The itching and burning was intense, and he was in terrible distress. I tried seven different doctors, but they all failed to cure him. I then tried Cuticura, and after using it for a few days, the itching and burning stopped, and the skin began to heal. I am now able to hold him in my arms, and he is as healthy as a horse.

My baby boy, 5 months old, broke out with eczema. The itching and burning was intense, and he was in terrible distress. I tried seven different doctors, but they all failed to cure him. I then tried Cuticura, and after using it for a few days, the itching and burning stopped, and the skin began to heal. I am now able to hold him in my arms, and he is as healthy as a horse.

My baby boy, 5 months old, broke out with eczema. The itching and burning was intense